ATTACKS PLAN TO PUT BUSINESS IN CONTROL OF GOVT.

Senator Fernald Says Kenyon Law Stifles Corporation.

POINTS TO FAILURE OF RAIL CONTROL AS EXAMPLE

Predicts Chaos and Commercial Bankruptcy If Bills Are Passed.

Washington, Aug. 21.—An attack on governmental tendency toward assuming control of business enterprises, with special reference to proposed legislation for supervision of the packing industry, was made today by Senator Fernald of Maine, speaking in the senate. Stamping the Kenyon and Kendrick bills as examples of "stifling, throttling legislation" he declared his opposition to them, said they were extensions of the policy which had failed in the transportation and communication industries and predicted that the public would suffer from higher costs and poorer service should they be enacted.

"I cannot believe the senate of the United States feels after the experience we have had with government control of railroads, telegraph and telephone lines, that the policy should be continued," Senator Fernald said.

"It would certainly lead to chaos and commercial bankruptcy. It is a part of the business men of the country. I want to protest here and now against this proposed legislation. It is filled with danger to our institutions, and our system of government. It is socialistic, it is un-American and it should be defeated."

Defending the packers, Senator Fernald said their business had to be conducted in large units in order to be economical. Their department of refrigerator cars and ownership of stock yards, like the utilization of animal by-products, constituted valuable service, he said.

STOCKMEN SAY BILL THREATENS INDUSTRY

Washington, Aug. 21.—Livestock producers object to a legislation proposing strict regulation of the packing industry. Henry W. Lynch, representing California and Arizona stockmen, told the senate agriculture committee today.

"We feel that the packing industry is the market end of our business," he said, "and that the Kenyon bill would tend to demoralize and hamper it. The bill is entirely destructive and at present, with prices falling on our steers, it will cripple us further."

Though he had talked to bankers and live stock associations before coming to Washington, Lynch insisted upon Senator Kenyon's questioning that neither he nor his associates had been influenced in their opinion by the five big packing companies.

"Suppose evidence here showed that during the last year they hoarded hides for higher prices. Would you think then they needed regulation?"

"Well suppose it appeared that the five had combined to control the price paid for livestock. Would you want them regulated?" Lynch said.

"Yes, certainly," he said. "The idea in the Kenyon bill seems to be to build up the small independent at the expense of the larger packers, which he said, would be bad because the latter, by utilizing by-products, could pay more for live cattle and yet sell meat cheaper."

"But do they do so?" asked Senator Wadsworth, Republican, New York.

"Yes, on the coast."

FORMER EMPRESS BUYS NEW HOME

It's a Small Establishment of Only 12 Rooms and Servant's Quarters—Bill Wants Change.

Amerongen, Tuesday, Aug. 19.—The former German Empress personally selected the house of Doorn, which William Hohenzollern has purchased as the future home in which she and her imperial husband hope to settle down and live the lives of country gentlemen in Holland.

The former empress has not yet seen "the house of Doorn," but it is anticipated in Amerongen that he will soon pay a visit to Doorn. Recently he is reported to have been taking carriage rides with Count Von Bentinck, the owner of Amerongen estate where he is living at present. It is believed that he has expressed himself as being in favor of a change in scenery from that within the limits which the Dutch government has restricted in all his movements.

Although the deeds for the sale of the house of Doorn were signed only a few days ago, the purchase of the estate and the ex-empress's secretary, Count von Bentinck, former empress's secretary, Augustus, who arrived in August when she made a visit there. The house, though rich in history and imposing in appearance has only 12 rooms in addition to small chambers for servants.

It is not expected the former empress will leave Amerongen for three months. The former empress's heart again is troubling her.

Dr. Forstner is making frequent visits to the castle of Amerongen.

Sergeant Reports That Capt. Matlack Holds Two Prisoners.

PICK UP TRAIL AFTER LOSING IN HARD RAIN

U. S. Troops Meet Mexican Cavalry But No Friction Results.

Laredo, Texas, Aug. 21.—Mexican bandits who robbed the American sailors in a launch from the U. S. Ship Cheyenne off Tampico, have been arrested by Carranza secret police in Dona Cecilia, a suburb of Tampico, according to information received here today.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The Mexican ambassador here has been instructed by his government to protest to the state department against the despatch of American troops across the border and to request their withdrawal, according to a statement issued at Mexico City yesterday.

Marfa, Tex., Aug. 21.—As soon as it was sufficiently light this morning to follow the trails, the American punitive expedition in Mexico, took up the bandit chase for the third day across the border. One column picked up the hot trail of two bandits believed to have been companions of the two bandits captured last yesterday by Captain Leonard Matlack.

According to an unofficial report brought to the Rio Grande last night, the pursuit is continuing over mountain peaks, down steep slopes and through dry mountain canyons. The pursuit of the bandits may be on the ground here for Presidio, 60 miles south, where a flying field base for the expedition had been established.

Landing here and getting gasoline and oil, the American punitive expedition, Rio Grande over Pallasades, near Ojinaga, along the Conchos river valley to pick up the trails. The cavalry resumed its work of scouting. Cavalry columns are searching out every canyon which would possibly be the hiding place of the bandits.

The work of the aviators is considered extremely dangerous, because there are few landing fields in Mexico. It is necessary to fly close to the ground, and the bandits may fire on the aviators, as they did Tuesday.

Fliers returning long after dark last night to headquarters here, reported many narrow escapes.

One aviator, when down a narrow canyon under a shelving rock to see if the bandits were finding concealment from the aviators under a shelf. Another came in with his face covered by red blotches, caused by driving through a hailstorm in Mexico at high speed.

Aviators located all American columns in Mexico. The fliers also found the Mexican federal column under General Antonio Fuentes near Cuchillo Barado, and reported the location of other small bodies of Carranza troops.

Few landings were made in Mexico. When the troops found a smooth landing place they placed a giant panel shaped letter "A" on the ground for the aviators. The aviators have been dropping orders to cavalry commanders from the air and returning to the Presidio base.

When the fliers left this morning they carried news bulletins furnished by the Associated Press, which they planned to drop for each cavalry troop operating in Mexico, to give them news of the outside world.

LIBERALISTS SEEK TO GET RID OF ERZBERGER

Berlin, Wednesday, Aug. 20.—Under the slogan "away with Erzberger," the liberalists last night staged a noisy meeting of protests in which the "speakers" subjected the minister of finance to a vicious verbal grilling. "Traitor," "scoundrel," "camouflaged corruptionist" and similar epithets were hurled at him. The speakers were demanding Erzberger's retirement.

CITY GIVES O. E. UNTIL TUESDAY TO OPERATE CARS

Rumor Heard That Cars Would Run Today But No Orders Are Received Here.

No attempt has been made by the Ohio Electric officials to operate their cars and in all probability none will be made today at least, although a rumor stated that cars would be taken from the barn. Superintendent Lemasters was not in his office this morning but officials in charge stated that no orders had been received to operate the cars.

Mayor H. A. Atherton stated this morning that a mistake had been made in yesterday's announcement that the company had been ordered to resume operations in this city within 48 hours. He notified the company, he said, that upon receipt of the notice from him that operations must be resumed in five days or else the terms of its franchise would be violated. The error was made in the announcement at the mayor's office.

That notice will possibly be received by the street railway officials some time today and the company will have until next Tuesday to comply with its provisions and if it fails to act the city may then begin action.

CONFERENCE MAY AVERT STRIKE OF STEEL WORKERS

Leaders Declare That 98 Per Cent of Men Vote For Walkout.

GOMPERS WILL HEAD BOARD TO MEET STEEL OFFICIALS

Meeting Can Not Be Arranged Until Labor Leader Arrives.

Youngstown, Aug. 21.—On the success of leaders of 24 labor unions affiliated in the steel industry in obtaining a conference with representatives of the steel representatives during the next ten days depends whether there is to be a nation wide strike of steel workers. Union leaders who canvassed the strike vote here yesterday say that 98 per cent of the men voting on the question voted to walk out.

Instead of calling a general strike forthwith, a conference committee of six, headed by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor was instructed to try to arrange the meeting with the representatives of the steel corporations in a final attempt to adjust demands made by the unions. In case of failure to obtain the conference, the committee is under instructions to set a strike date forthwith.

A meeting of the conference committee is to be held within a few days to map out a plan for approaching the representatives of the steel corporation. This meeting, it is said, may not be held until Mr. Gompers who is en route from Europe arrives. The date and place for the meeting was not yet set.

After canvassing the strike vote and deciding to seek a conference with representatives of the steel corporation, members of the committee left immediately for their homes.

In case a conference is arranged within the ten days period, but no agreement on the demands of the union is reached, W. Z. Foster, member of the conference committee and its spokesman, said he did not know what would be done. The course to be pursued, he said, would have to be decided after such a situation arose.

Members of the committee said they had no assurance that the steel corporation officials would agree to a conference.

The headquarters of the conference committee which will try to arrange the meeting with United States Steel representatives will be at Mr. Foster's office in Pittsburgh. The committee is expected to meet there soon.

Basic demands made by iron and steel workers of the 24 unions are as follows:

1. Right of collective bargaining.

2. Reinstatement of all men discharged for union activities, with pay for time lost.

3. The eight-hour day.

4. One day's rest in seven.

5. Abolition of 24-hour shifts.

6. Increase in wages sufficient to guarantee American standards of living.

7. Standard scales of wages for all crafts and classification of workers.

8. Double rates of pay for all overtime work and for work on Sundays and holidays.

9. Check-off system of collecting union dues and assessments.

10. Principles of seniority to apply in maintaining, reducing and increasing working forces.

11. Abolition of company unions.

12. Abolition of physical examination of applicants for employment.

These propositions are said to be general in character and are subject to development when the organizations prepare their trade demands.

U. S. CAVALRY ON TRAIL OF BANDITS WHO HELD FLIERS

Lieut. Paul H. Davis.

A troop of U. S. cavalry is on the trail of the Mexican bandits who held two fliers of the U. S. army border patrol for ransom. The two men held, and later rescued on payment of half the $15,000 asked, are helping guide the troops. The two fliers were Lieutenants Paul H. Davis of Strathmore, California, and Harold G. Peterson of Minnesota.

The decision was taken after Senator Pittman had made it clear that in introducing the resolution he acted on his own initiative, and after Senator Hitchcock, the administration leader had indicated that it was not to be regarded as inspired by the administration.

Washington, Aug. 21.—Democratic senate leaders, apparently divided over the expediency of the compromise proposed for peace treaty reservations separate from the ratification, decided today not to press for action the resolution of Senator Pittman, Democrat of Nevada, embodying the compromise plan. The impression was given that the measure probably would be permitted to lie over indefinitely.

The decision was taken after Senator Pittman had made it clear that in introducing the resolution he acted on his own initiative, and after Senator Hitchcock, the administration leader had indicated that it was not to be regarded as inspired by the administration.

Washington, Aug. 21.—President Wilson has not the power to declare peace by proclamation, nor could he consent in any circumstances to take such a course prior to the ratification of a formal treaty of peace by the senate.

The President so wrote Senator Fall today in answer to one of the 20 written questions the senator presented at the White House conference Tuesday.

These two men have won two-thirds of the victories hung up by Commy's men and have lost less than one-third of their own starts. In other words, they have buried .700 per cent ball.

NAVY MUST BOOST PAY OF OFFICERS

More Than 300 Send In Resignations Because Income Is Not Large Enough For Family.

Washington, Aug. 21.—With the resignations of more than 300 permanent officers of the regular navy already submitted to the department, and more arriving daily, Acting Secretary Roosevelt today began work on prepared legislation to be submitted to congress suggesting substantial pay increases for officers and enlisted men of the navy and marine corps. Present pay tables became effective in 1908 and have not been reversed upward since, although civilian pay has increased substantially in almost every branch of work.

High-ranking officers who have given careful study to the situation believe the efficiency of the navy is seriously threatened. Most of the resignations have come from the younger officers in the lower grades to men to whom the country looks for the leadership of its sea forces in the years to come. These officers, receiving from $1700 to $3000 a year, most of them Annapolis graduates capable of earning much higher salaries in civilian life, say they find it impossible to support their families on their pay.

In this connection one rear admiral called a mention to the many classes of ordinary labor in civilian life who earn larger salaries than do naval officers who are responsible daily for many lives and thousands of dollars worth of government property.

For the present, Acting Secretary Roosevelt said today, no action will be taken on the resignations now on file pending to readjust the pay tables. Already short nearly 2000 officers on strength, Mr. Roosevelt said that unless the salary revision is obtained the navy faces the awkwardness choice of retaining a large number of officers against their will, with subsequent discontent and dissatisfaction, or accepting the resignations.

Annapolis graduates have been trained at a government expense of more than $20,000 each, he said, and even though other candidates might be obtained in the future to take their places, it would take years to train them.

EIGHT CHICAGO PLAY HOUSES ARE CLOSED

Chicago, Aug. 21.—Eight downtown theatres remained closed today as a result of the strike of actors, stage hands and musicians. There is little chance of any of the closed houses being reopened for tonight, according to the leaders in the movement against the Producing Managers association. Many managers of the houses effected said the strike lines seemed to be tightening.

The one downtown theatre which is not "dark" had a brief strike experience preceding the matinee, when its stage hands and musicians went out along with those at other houses. It is the Olympic, where Fiske O'Hara is appearing in "Duke Merrick Way." Shortly after the curtain it was found the management is affiliated with the producing managers' association, and when this was discovered the stage hands and musicians returned for the night performance.

Predictions were made today by leaders of the strike that burlesque vaudeville and motion picture houses would soon close unless the producing managers recognize the Equity Association of Actors and Artists.

URGES BOYS AND GIRLS TO EXHIBIT AT FAIR

All members of the boys' and girls' food and pig clubs, conducted in Licking county in co-operation with the Ohio State University, are urged by the agricultural college to exhibit their products at the county fair at Newark, from September 9 to 12.

The members of the food club will exhibit a loaf of war bread, three pints each of fruits and vegetables, two glasses of jelly, and a small glass of preserves with a record book and final report.

The pig club members will exhibit their pigs and records of costs, gains, feed used, and other data.

The first prize in each contest will be a free trip to Farmers' Week which will be held in Columbus, next January 26 to 30. Valuable cash prizes are also offered.

The boys and girls are reminded that sometimes those having the best material for exhibit do not always win the prizes simply because they fail to make entries. Every member, therefore, should feel that he has a chance to win, says W. H. Palmer, state leader of boys' and girls' clubs.

RAIL LINES GIVE RATES FOR CO. FAIR

F. P. Copper, district passenger agent of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, said it is believed that the 20,000,000 marks, which an attempt to smuggle from Berlin to Switzerland was frustrated by police in airplanes, belonged to the former crown prince. A highly placed person has been arrested in connection with the attempt to take the money from the country.

COAL MAN TESTIFIES.
Washington, Aug. 21.—J. D. A. Morrow, vice president of the National coal association, was called as the first witness in the state investigation of coal prices and distribution. The inquiry by the senate interstate commerce subcommittee will begin Tuesday.

THE PRESIDENCY.

Speaking at the formal opening of the Franklin County Democratic club's new quarters, Governor James M. Cox said:

"The present congress, under reactionary leadership of men possessed with something like hydrophobia, will give the country an inkling of what to expect if the Republican party should come into power in White House and congress in 1920."

The governor said that the Republicans would make the most stupendous if not hysterical effort to gain the presidency. "If they win in 1920, we will be in for a very rough time of it in this country. They will see in their election a vindication of their reactionary methods and will think that the 'good old days' have come again. Prosperity right and not human rights will be the predominating influence."

"But I don't believe that there is the slightest chance for the election of a Republican president. I am as morally certain of that as I am that the sun will rise tomorrow. Before November of 1920 there may hover over the horizon of this country the danger of Bolshevism so great that the voters will realize that the entrenchment of Republican leaders in the White House and congress will be the surest guarantee of Bolshevik success."

The governor condemned the leadership of the Republican party in state and nation and declared that the elements in control of the party desire great business for the favored few, caring nothing about the prosperity of the great mass of people.

The Buckeye chief executive has correctly sized up the leadership of the Republican party in congress and in Ohio and as each day passes the fact is becoming patent to the average American that the Republican party, defeated in 1910, 1912 and 1916 because of reactionary leadership cannot win until that leadership is overthrown.

Republicans are now telling the country that if a Republican president is elected in 1920 the high cost of living will fall away and that taxes will be brought down to a pre-war level. They may be able to fool some people with that line of bunk but not many. Congress today is in Republican hands and reduction of taxes, laws for curbing food profiteers, and for correction of many evils that beset us in Republican hands. They have many all of the machinery necessary. The money will be done by a leadership that wastes its time in petty snarling, growing and fault finding. It lacks the vision to meet the needs of America in this period of reconstruction period. Truly has it been said, the Republican party was 'out of luck' when it elected a Republican congress in 1918.

THE RACE RIOTS.

The better elements of different races never have trouble in getting along with each other. Industries and peace loving and fair minded people can always reach some basis of adjustment by which they can live harmoniously side by side.

The ruffians who provoke such race outbreaks as those recently occurring at Chicago and Washington must be made to feel that the country will not tolerate such disturbances. It will be necessary to find a lot of them safely in jail for long terms, to teach their friends and imitators that for their own health they must keep the peace.

Wherever there is serious friction between whites and negroes, the sane and sensible leaders of both must get together to remove its causes. The white people must give the negro every opportunity for education and development. The negroes must realize that until they become as good citizens, as useful and moral and intelligent as the white race, they must expect some degree of social discrimination.

NEITHER PEACE NOR WAR.

Partisan politics in the senate played so brazenly by Senator Lodge and the other party leaders, drew a severe indictment from President Wilson in his address on the high cost of living. The President said:

"The free process of supply and demand will not operate of themselves and no legislative or executive action can force them into full and natural operation until there is peace."

"There is now neither peace nor war. All the world is waiting—waiting for a peace which will not come until the nations shall make shift for itself as it can, or a peace buttressed and supported by the will and concert of the nations that have the purpose and power to do so and to enforce what is right."

The President is right. Peace must come and at once if the unrest in the world and in this nation is to subside. Senators have had the treaty for weeks now and have been given complete information concerning it. But petty partisan anti-Wilsonism, anti-everything actuates them in a dilly-dallying policy that endangers the national safety.

The lack of strength of the progressive element in the leadership of the Republican party has been evidenced numerous times of late. It was demonstrated in the organization of the house and the senate and in the recent attempt to enlarge the house steering committee. But the progressives accomplished nothing. Jim Mann and his stand patters are solidly in control and only the overthrow of the party in 1920 can wrest the control from the crowd that believes the "good old days" of Mark Hanna, Cannon, Aldrich and Co. have returned.

It is denied that in these cheerful and lively days the newspapers have nothing but news about strikes, as some days they have to change off and devote themselves to riots.

It is no longer safe to stick up a scarecrow out in the fields, as some one will come along and steal the clothes.

DOES THE WORLD NEED A REST?

(Columbus Dispatch)
Discussing the present troubled condition of the world and tangled condition of the world's affairs, a supposedly great statesman rises to remark that what the world needs is a rest. It is all right as a figure of speech, perhaps, but the truth is it doesn't need a rest at all; rest is the last thing in the world that a man or a nation needs. And rest comes at the end.
If the gentleman means that we should devote more of our time to work and less to worry, he is correct. We do need a rest from worry. But if he means by "rest" inaction—then he is mistaken. Too many people cannot find rest with inaction. A change of work may prove beneficial, laying aside the customary toil of the day for some other kind under the head of play, is generally wise, if the toll has been prolonged. But the fellow who is best able to rest is the one who is busiest when he is enjoying his rest. There is rest in this world only in the cemeteries, and there are dead nations enjoying rest just as there are dead men. If the world "lays down," if it seeks inaction, if it tries to stop the overhauling wheel, if it even forgets that there is anything to discuss or to discuss—then it has done to rest in the graveyard of forgetfulness. All of these apparently great arguments of the day, all of this "moving crowd," all of these sharp discussions and fierce contentions are belated; it is the only way men and nations and the world can hope to make progress.

CORN OIL COMING INTO GENERAL USE.

(By Edwin F. Bowers, M. D., Author of "Alcohol, Its Influence on Mind and Body," and "Bathing for Health.")

Ever since the Indians passed the information along to our old Puritan fathers, and their equally puritanical wives, we, in America, have acknowledged that corn is a wonderfully nutritious and sustaining food.

It is only within recent years, however, that we have come to realize that the oil in the germ of the corn, hitherto regarded as a by-product, is one of the most valuable of all the ingredients of the corn.

For recent experiments have proved that corn oil, pound for pound, is one of the most readily converted and assimilated of all fats, and that it has very high nutritive qualities by reason of this fact.

Corn oil is a true "made-in-America" product, inasmuch as its use has been confined largely to America—although it is quite conceivable that, before many years, there will be a very great demand created for it abroad—especially in the British Isles, in all the northern countries of Europe, and, perhaps, even in the olive-growing countries themselves.

Corn oil has unique qualities, which give it a great advantage over olive oil in many respects. For one thing, its method of preparation preserves it from rancidity to which olive oil is so liable, for fermentation processes have been overcome in the preparation of corn oil.

With corn oil, great care is taken to insure thorough sterilization. The crude, yellow oil, expressed from the corn germs, is purified by filtration and steaming. Then the water, protein substances, and glycerine elements, are removed. In the oil thus sterilized, any germs that may have dropped around, are killed. Further, the oil is deodorized, and the ferments which later on might cause rancidity, are completely destroyed.

The result is a liquid, clear, light yellow colored oil—odorless, and with a peculiar and agreeable sweet flavor that satisfies a natural taste. For, unlike the taste for olives or olive oil, the liking for corn oil does not have to be acquired. It comes right along, and makes itself "to home"—with American palates, anyhow.

In mixing salad dressing it has been found that corn oil is equal to the best olive oil, and very much better than ordinary olive oil—and at a cost not to exceed one-half the cost of the highest grade of imported olive oil. Indeed, many discriminating South Europeans, including Italians, now prefer the sweet bland corn oil to olive oil.

Corn oil blends perfectly with the various ingredients used in "building," a French or a mayonnaise dressing—making a perfectly smooth and homogenous combination.

One interesting fact in connection with this use of corn oil is that corn oil does not congeal as readily as does olive oil. It remains fluid down to a temperature of 14 degrees; whereas olive oil becomes cloudy and solidifies at a temperature of 32 degrees. This makes a very great difference, for crisp coldness is one of the first requisites of a salad.

But an even more desirable property in corn oil is its correspondingly higher burning point. While butter burns at about 250 degrees, goose grease at 400 degrees, lard at 425 degrees, cottonseed oil at 525 degrees, and olive oil at 600 degrees, corn oil does not burn until it is heated up to 650 degrees Fahrenheit.

It is the low-burning point of butter, lard, and other fats and oils, that fills the house with smoke and stench, and gives all the neighbors wireless information as to what the family is to have for dinner.

The great advantage of a higher burning point in frying steak, fish, onions, and other odoriferous foods, is that the higher temperature, used with corn oil, makes it possible to cook the food in a shorter space of time, and therefore prevents the toughening of the meat, the drying out of the fish, and the diffusion of the perfumes of the food from other commodities.

Also, the use of corn oil at its unusually high temperature "seals" in immediately the surface juices of the food, retaining thereby the flavor, aroma, and succulence which would otherwise be lost or else disseminated all over the neighborhood. The food is cooked in its own juices, and of being saturated with burnt grease that would give the food a flavor and odor anything but desirable.

This makes it possible to fry doughnuts, nuts, fish, onions, or any food product in one pan, and at one time, if it were necessary, without any one product taking up the odors or flavors of any of the other products.

This is carrying American efficiency.

BITTERNESS IN ACTORS' STRIKE GROWS DAILY

Glimpses of the actors' strike in New York and some prominent characters taking part in the fight. Two striking actresses "peeling off" the coat of an actor attempting to enter a theater. George M. Cohan and Ethel Barrymore, who are on different sides of the fence, and Marie Dressler, president of the chorus girls' organization, with crowd of striking actors.

The actors' strike, which started several days ago in New York and is spreading to other cities, assumes more serious proportions daily. Bitterness between the producing managers' association, the organization of the producers and show managers, and the Actors' Equity association, formed by the strikers, is growing. Damage suits brought against the strikers individually by the producers and managers for breach of contract will total $6,000,000, it is said. The strike has forced the producers to close many theaters and either delay or cancel rehearsals for several of the winter productions. The strikers demand pay during the long summer rehearsals and other improvements in their working conditions. Although the chorus girls are not included in the strike, the Actors' Equity association now insists on pay for the girls during rehearsals lasting over four weeks and that tight, slippers and other costumes be furnished. Famous actors and actresses are split over the merits of the strike. Marie Dressler, comedian, is president of the chorus girls' union and is representing them. Ethel Barrymore has announced she is with the strikers. George Cohan has said he will spend every dollar he owns to fight the strike.

The role of "Chevyenne Harry" is depicted by Harry Carey. The story concerns a rancher who is proved upon by a band of cattle rustlers. Not content with stealing his cattle, they stole the girl. He then forged his promise to go unarmed and trapped the rustlers in the mountains. A gun battle ensued that echoes in legend throughout the cow country to this day.

Burglar By Proxy.

The chain of problems, fears, pleasures and heart throbs which link together in the life of the average American girl afford glory Hope, playing the role of Dorothy, Mason in Jack Pickford's latest picture, "Burglar By Proxy," ample opportunity to demonstrate her versatility. This attraction will be seen at the Auditorium theatre commencing next Monday.

Dorothy is engaged to her father's business rival whom she dislikes. She falls in love with Jack but his many promises convince her that he must be a burglar. How Jack sets himself on his feet with Dorothy is both interesting and humorous.

wood Film company brought his sparkling personality within range of a studio camera. In his famous stage success, "Johnny Get Your Gun," Bennison was introduced to his audiences as a "movie" stunt artist in a prologue, which had a motion picture studio as its setting. Besides giving the public an insight into the workings of a screen studio, the star showed remarkable familiarity with what is expected of a picture player, though Bennison later admitted he never ventured within the portals of a film foundry.

This little secret is confided to Ira M. Lewis, general director of Belzwood productions, when Bennison appeared for his first day's work in "Oh, Johnny," the medium for introducing the brilliant player as a star of the screen. But after his experiences with the smiling star in "Sandy Burke of the 'Far West'" and in his newest picture, "Speedy Mead," which comes to the Alhambra theatre Friday, the director insists Bennison knew a whole lot more about studios and screen acting than he was willing to admit.

Bennison has proved of invaluable assistance in the direction of his pictures. Giving little thought to studio technique, the star, when not entering the scene in which he takes part, busies himself in tutoring his associates in the ways of the Westerners in order that his pictures be given the utmost in realism. And no one on the screen is a greater stickler for realism than the smiling cowboy star. To give the necessary forcefulness to one of the big scenes in "Speedy Mead," Bennison spent hours in drilling several of the players just how a sure-enough sheriff and his posse conduct a raid on a shack that shelters a band of desperate cattle thieves.

Bennison holds to the theory that it is just as easy to do it the right way as the wrong way. He has proved the public and himself his two previous screen successes, his efforts have been well rewarded. He did not play a Westerner in his last picture, Director Lewis's work of prison, the handsome Belzwood star.

TODAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Starring Miss Allison, represents an inn situated in the Swiss Alps. Not being able to locate a house built in the architecture of the country, Director Charles Swickard decided that it would be best to build one. Selecting a high location overlooking a beautiful valley he erected an inn which is true in every detail to the famed Swiss chalets.

"Almost Married," which will be shown at the Alhambra theatre soon, is a play that gives Miss Allison a role of wide range—first she is seen as the unsophisticated daughter of a Swiss innkeeper and later as the reigning favorite of a Broadway review.

"Experimental Marriage." "Shall I marry and lose my freedom, or stay single and lose the man I love?" is the question of Constance Talmadge as Suzanne, a girl finds herself called upon to answer in her latest Select Picture "Experimental Marriage," in which she is presented by Lewis J. Selznick.

Does marriage imply the abandoning of all heart on the part of the wife? When a woman marries a man, does it mean that she must give up her dearly beloved freedom and spend the rest of her life living for one man only out of the millions of men that exist on earth? These are the questions that the charming widow Brecht put to herself and found herself incapable of answering.

That's why she hesitated when Harrison Ford as Lovett Grey proposed to her. She loved him and wanted to "hold" him in some manner so that she could be assured that he was hers alone, but she also dearly loved her freedom.

Furthermore, she had dreamed been married and had led a humdrum existence for a few years because he had made a bad match. Her first husband, however, had died and she had again breathed freely and now she thought that to marry again was to plunge into perpetual bondage. So she received a sudden inspiration and contracted with her new love to marry and live as man and wife three out of each week, each week as he or she pleased on the other four days. But she didn't work. You'll have to see (Continued on Page 6, Col. 2)

Buy WSS—Win the Victory Shaft

IS THE VICTORY SHAFT WORTH WINNING?

The Victory Shaft itself is nothing, but the Licking now has the lead and the sales are progressing nicely, but it will take thousands of additional sales if we are to win. Undoubtedly Memorial, a prize worth $10,000, but that for there will be a great rush next week. To avoid which the shaft stands is of inestimable value. the rush in the closing days, buy now.

In the entire United States but one shaft will be awarded. It goes to the leading county in the leading state. Today, nine days before the close of the contest, Licking county, Ohio, stands in first place, but only a few thousand dollars stand between Licking in first and Warren county in second place. Morrow county is a close third.

The difference in population makes it necessary for Licking to sell four times as many stamps as Morrow and two and one-half times as many as Warren to equal those counties. Twenty five cents in Morrow does the work of a dollar here. One hundred thousand dollars in Morrow equal $400,000 in Licking.

Members of the War Work organization who are to report their sales Aug. 29 are requested to mail their pledge cards as rapidly as pledges are received. Write "Newark" upon the address side of the card and drop it into the first mail box. No stamp is needed.

While encouraging reports are coming from the country districts and the city leaders, let it be known that the job is by no means finished and unless great effort is made Licking will lose in the final days of the drive. Warren is now conducting a special drive, Morrow starts next Monday, and other leaders in the race are busy.

Winning the Victory Shaft will be a great national advertisement for Newark and Licking county. It will be the finishing touch of Licking county's great war organization, which has scored a perfect record to date. The favorable publicity attending the national honor that came to James G. Cooper last week will not compare with that following the close of the Shaft contest. The prize itself is worth only $10,000, but that for which the prize stands has a value that can not be measured in dollars.

And Licking county has the chance to win this national distinction without it costing a penny. Money invested in War Savings Stamps is not thrown away, but is simply put in a safe place, where it can be recovered any time, with interest. There is no other investment so good, none that is safer. Every stamp counts, every "limit" purchase helps a lot. The August price is $4.19. Two hundred stamps, $838.

Those who prefer to have the investment in the form of a Treasury Savings Certificate may do so by applying to the Newark or the Granville postoffices. The banks will accept orders for $1000 certificates providing advance payment of $838 is made. These certificates are automatically registered and they pay 4.27% interest if held till maturity, Jan. 1, 1924. Like the stamps, they are not taxable. All postoffices and all banks sell W. S. S.

Having made a wonderful record in every one of the war drives, will Licking county now fail in this last campaign, or will the people buy enough W. S. S. in the next nine days to make Licking win? While we now lead, the lead is small. If Licking is to win there must be a perfect avalanche of stamp sales before Saturday night, Aug. 30. Victory is within our grasp. Don't let it slip. Buy W. S. S. now to the limit of your ability and help to induce others to buy. Let's win.

WHAT KIND OF GIRLS ARE THEY, ANYWAY?

Around at the Auditorium every body's up on their toes, so to speak. The theatre attacks, particularly the male percentage, seem to have assumed the burden and responsibility of caring for the wants of the Mack Sennett Bathing Beauties.

Even George Fenberg is drawn into the vortex. When we approached him to ask how things were going, he dragged us back of stage and introduced us.

"They're beyond me," he said. "Here's the whole bunch of them, see for yourself."

The girls were gathered congenially in one dressing room when we first met them, helping each other dress, combing each other's hair, putting the finishing touches to the movie make-up. We reckoned it up—the beauty in that wee room cost Mack Sennett thousands of dollars each week.

Dorothy Orth, an admirable little Southern girl, dressed up in a robin's egg blue shepherdess suit laced about the neck, short trousers that reached half way to her pink knees, and short, pink socks. She was sitting on one end of the dressing table, knees crossed, chatting away vivaciously.

Patricia Caudry, a youngster known on the coast for her diving, who was having her bobbed brown hair combed as she sat before the mirror in the lowest necked, shortest one-piece bathing suit of blue and gold that was ever worn by mortal woman, was another fetching little person.

Donny Harry, the helpful one who was engaged in the task of untangling her hair, and she's been up in the air about it all day.

Naturally all the girls have attracted admiring attention in the towns where they have appeared—prize beauties that they are, with faces and figures that Mack Sennett is making famous. They are still young and unworried enough to have visions of a great romantic bliss when attractive young men appear on the horizon of their emotions. Therefore the chamber. And therefore, we hazard the guess, many attempts to outwit her ever-watchful eye.

Back in Los Angeles—it is in their contract—they have to keep in trim for their work before the camera. Mack Sennett arranges with their parents to keep them indoors nights—he won't hire a bathing girl unless she lives at home with her parents. Daytime they spend in their apartments on the studio grounds, reading, sewing, exercising, keeping themselves beautiful, when they are not "on the lot" putting jazz and pep, and youth, and beauty, and everything on the screen.

They are here before the public at the Auditorium with their tableaux-posing, revue and their prologue "Why Beaches Are Popular" and "Yankee Doodle in Berlin," because so many requests to see the bathing damsels in person have come from all over the United States to Mack Sennett. They are appearing here until Saturday in their spiffiest and latest bathing suits, and their happiest, widest smiles.

It is remarkable what a great interest the bathing girls taken in each other's the wayward curls of her chum, gave a laughing glance from under her man-darin hat. Her's was a China's sort of bathing suit of figured satin in Chinese design—figures of green, orange, blue and black on a background of creamy yellow—the skirt was weighted by beaded tassels, the bloomers caught above the knee with snug bands of orange, green and gold ribbon.

Alice Turner, who by the way, bids fair to acquire fame in a motion picture magazine beauty contest now on, was making up her eyebrows in the way they should be, and, as I remember it, in a filmy swimming frock of orange and black that most certainly was not made for water.

Ruby Corbett, in a blue and white apology for a covering, very stylish in amount but enough to show that it was meant to be Russian, green with cream fur and white Russian boots, was sitting quietly at the foot of the chamber. Mrs. Adler, mother of one of the girls.

Mrs. Adler is a retired woman with graying hair who finds her hands full looking after the girls in her charge. Her husband, a major in the army, refused to allow his daughter to take the trip of such the bathing girls unless her mother went, too.

The fond parents of the other girls raised the same objection, and at one time Mack Sennett threatened a whole bevy of mothers would be coming with the show. So the girls and their mothers compromised by putting all the girls under the protection of one or two mothers.

"You can't imagine the pressure of these children," Mrs. Adler said, "with a such that because her parents for her reported child."

One of them has been away from home before, or in the midst of it, and has been reveling in the pleasures of the beach.

"I've been to the beach," said one of the girls from Los Angeles, "and I know. You know, we all have, and there's one thing we all know, the farther east we go the better the beach is."

Speaking of the beach, a motherly, full Billy, one of the girls' fathers, said:

A round of rapid fire, and he died away, leaving Dorothy Orth, who met him in Loughborough, and met these Southerners, who were passing the summer in Loughborough, and then after the first started with a story of minutes and he's written her a love

THIS STOVE DOESN'T HOLD THE HEAT—IT RADIATES IT

The heat is FREELY GIVEN OFF INTO THE ROOM as fast as it is formed. And it's a STRONG HEAT that quickly dispels any chill.

All Gases and Fumes are Consumed

Therein lies the secret of the fuel economy of this stove. You know how the air is quickly filled with heavy smoke and gas when the draft on an ordinary stove happens to work the wrong way. In this stove these fumes are consumed in heat production.

GOLD SEEKERS ENTER SIBERIA

Leave Nome, Alaska, in July On Perilous Trip Through Ice-Bound Bering Straits.

Nome, Alaska, July 14. (By Mail.)—Twenty-nine weather bronzed explorers hailing from every quarter of the globe and bound for some mysterious gold country of northern Siberia, left here tonight aboard the sailing schooner Casco, once the property of Robert Louis Stevenson.

Fears were expressed by Nome residents before the boat left that it would not be able to get through into the Arctic Ocean as reports received here recently said that Bering Straits were still blocked with ice.

Members of the ship's company said they were bound for some point in a vast uninhabited territory lying along the Arctic shore of Siberia between East Cape and the Lena River. They would not divulge the exact location of their destination.

The party is known as the Northern Mining and Trading company and is led by S. L. McGirk, a mining engineer of Hamilton, Tex., president of the company. A. L. Johnson, another of the party, is vice-president. Captain C. L. Oliver is master of the adventure ship. With the exception of the destination there is little mystery about the expedition, McGirk said while here. He asserted that the party possess certain knowledge about the country for which they are heading and are aiming to explore the section and find what it contains. No rich gold strikes are expected he declared.

The Casco may be sent back from the North this fall after landing her passengers at their destination.

RAID OHIO'S LARGEST STILL IN GEauga CO.

Cleveland, Aug. 21.—What officers believe to be the largest moonshine still in Ohio was put out of commission late last night, when Cleveland detectives and federal authorities raided a house in a wood near Pullertown, Geauga county.

Four of the alleged moonshine gang were arrested and 350 gallons of whiskey seized. Modern apparatus for making liquor was found.

GOV. COX TAKES HAND IN CLEVELAND PROBE

Cleveland, Aug. 21.—Governor James M. Cox took a hand in the Cuyahoga county campaign against the high costs of living today, when in telephone messages to the county prosecutor's office he is believed to have outlined methods to be followed by the local officials engaged in the inquiry.

It is believed the governor recommended the indictment and prosecution of several Cleveland food dealers.

Assistant Prosecutor Stephen M. Young, who talked to the governor in the absence of County Prosecutor Doerflinger, would make no statement concerning Cox's message except to say "he offered some important suggestions."

DANIELS WELCOMED BY HAWAIIAN NATIVES

Honolulu, T. H., Aug. 20.—Ancient Hawaii through the sons and daughters of its warriors, welcomed Secretary of the Navy Daniels and his party and the officers and men of the dreadnaught New York, which arrived here today. The Hawaiians attired in native costumes, greeted the secretary and his party when it landed.

Rear Admiral Bert M. D. McCormick underwent an operation for appendicitis at sea last Monday. It became known when the dreadnaught reached here. His condition was reported as dangerous.

Apprentice P. T. Smith of Chicago, was crushed to death aboard the New York by the swinging of a 14-inch gun turret.

CARNEGIE'S FORTUNE ONLY 50 MILLIONS

New York, Aug. 21.—Andrew Carnegie's will, which will be filed for probate next week, will dispose of an estate valued at $50,000,000. All that remains of the $400,000,000 he accumulated by the iron master in his business career. This was learned yesterday from one of the representatives of the estate.

The will is said to be about 1500 words long. Several personal friends and former servants of Carnegie are to get small bequests. The bulk of the estate, it is understood, will go to members of the Carnegie family, although his daughter, Margaret, now Mrs. Joseph A. B. Smith, and others were provided for by his death.

The Home Trust company of Hoboken, a Carnegie corporation, has been named to act as executor without bond. In this connection it is worth noting that the law of New York, requiring foreign trust companies to deposit 10 per cent of their capital with the state banking superintendent before they can do business here, was amended a few years ago to require a trust company to act as executor without complying with this requirement. It is now admitted that the change was made at the behest of Mr. Carnegie's representatives.

It was in the offices of the Home Trust company, overlooking the park from which the Levittown hotel time and again during the war, carrying thousands of troops, that the will was drawn and redrafted at least a dozen times before Mr. Carnegie was satisfied with its provisions. It was in the same office that he drew up the provisions for his many great benefactions, following his retirement from business, and one of the features of the furnishings is the safe he had in his Pittsburgh office when he transferred his holdings to the United States Steel Corporation.

Flies Cut Down Milk Yield

There's no doubt about it. Flies not only worry the cows and the milker, but they keep you from getting all the milk you should.

And there's no doubt about this either. The one way to get rid of flies at milking time—and the sure way to get more milk is to use

Pratts Fly Chaser

Spray it on just before milking. PRATTS does not taint the milk. PRATTS does not burn or blister the hide. PRATTS does not take off or gum up the hair.

Give your cows a chance to give more milk. Give your work animals a chance to get their rest. Give PRATTS a trial.

ASKS FOR INTERPRETATION OF ARMY AVIATOR'S WILL

Emma C. Koontz, administrator of the estate of Ralph C. Koontz, who died June 14, 1919, and whose last will and testament was admitted to probate shortly thereafter, has filed a petition in the court of common pleas stating that she is in doubt as to the true construction of the will and cannot proceed safely without the direction of the court. Our Boys and Girls

A yard can be made an ideal playground for your children at a moderate expense. Playing in sand appeals more than anything else to children for hours at a time. Therefore the first thing to put in the yard playground is a sand box. This can be done by nailing four boards together and partly imbedding them in the ground. Babies should not be allowed to play by themselves in the sand until they know that they should not put it in their mouths. The sand should be barred because of injury to the eyes.

Discarded cooking utensils and a few spoons give the children an opportunity to imitate mother's fascinating operations in the kitchen. In warm weather they can have water to mix with the sand and this makes the play all the more real and engrossing. Older children find many things to do with sand. They pile it up and make hills of it, dig holes and fill them with water, or make representations of the many things that children love to play and think about.

Fretty patterns can be made in damp sand by drawing with a stick, by pressing stone, pebbles or seeds into it, or by using such objects as grooved shells or the rim of a cup. All kinds of outdoor games can be played in the yard and the children can romp to their heart's content.

Swimming Exercises.

A graceful carriage can be gained through the exercise of swimming. This is because the back muscles are so much used to keep the head above water. For straightening rounded shoulders I recommend swimming, for I have seen some remarkable improvements in shoulders of girls I know, after a summer of daily swimming.

If your chest is flat by all means swim. Use either the breast stroke or the overhand stroke and you will exercise the muscles of the chest as no other movement will. You are bound to breathe deeply for more air than usual is taken into your lungs unconsciously and the lungs are extended to their fullest limit. It follows that the circulation is stimulated and your whole body is invigorated and strengthened.

Your breathing should correspond to your movements when swimming. When your legs are extended your breath is expelled, and when your legs are drawn in the air is breathed into your lungs.

If your waist is thick and your abdomen is large, get your bathing suit on and begin the first day you can to swim. The stretching of the whole body muscles, as involved in the ordinary swimming movements, acts most beneficially on the waist and abdomen in a remarkably short time, with regular daily practice the waist and hips and abdomen will be normal again.

If you wish a symmetrical figure, swim. There will not be a muscle in your body that does not get benefit from this exercise. Even if you can't swim, get your bathing suit on and play on the beach with the children. Just as you won't forget to tell the young and how to be happy.

Telephone Service.

THE DANGER LINE.

In the editorial in Collier's Weekly from which we have already quoted, we find the following:

"Rising costs and higher wages, together with cheapening money, have brought public utilities as a whole altogether too close to the danger line of bankruptcy."

This would have been true of this company before this if rates for service had not been increased a year ago last July. It is a return to those lower rates that CITY SOLICITOR Ashcraft has been bending his energies. If he is successful, even the 20 per cent reduction in wages to our men which his efforts would bring about, would prevent this company from suffering irreparable loss. "The danger line of bankruptcy" might not be our fate, but the danger line of poorer telephone service is more than probable.

Recommend Resinol to that friend with skin trouble

If you have a friend suffering with eczema or other itching, burning eruption, what greater kindness could you do him than to say: "Why don't you try Resinol? I know you have experimented with a dozen treatments, but I believe Resinol is different. It does not claim to be a 'cure-all'—simply a soothing, healing ointment, free from all harsh drugs, that physicians prescribe widely in just such cases as yours. Do get a jar today!" Resinol Ointment is sold by all druggists.

JAUNTY SUIT FOR BRISK FALL DAYS

Poppy red suede cloth fashions this smart little suit for fall wear. It is a defiant costume, for it refuses to follow the dictates of fashion and that is the reason for the short jacket with the very full lapels, while most of the new fall suits have coats that extend to the knees. The black wolf collar is detachable and may be taken off on the warmer days.

Hot Weather Tortured Feet

Long, hot days in shop or store, trips "down town," hours of standing or walking on hard floors and hot pavements—bring distress to feet. Give your poor, tired, swollen feet a treat. A gentle massage with soothing, healing, House-tone-e-ah will do it. My! What relief! A light application once or twice a day, and you soon forget you have feet. New, tight shoes feel like old, easy ones. It relieves all pain immediately, takes away the inflammation, reduces the swelling, removes all soreness from corns, softens callouses and keeps the feet in excellent condition. A 25c bottle, from your druggist, lasts for months. Ask for and get House-tone-e-ah (The Original Jones Lintment). The Dr. J. C. Jones Co., 15 Charleston, Ohio. "The kind your daddy used, with my dad's picture on the yellow wrapper."

Kills Pesky Bed Bugs P. D. Q.

A Two ounce box of P. D. Q. makes a full quart of the best bed bug killer on earth. Better than a barrel of old-fashioned bug-killer. P. D. Q. [Pesky Devil's Quicker] kills like a 42-cent nettle shell. It kills bedbugs, fleas, roaches, ants, and chiggers like, and it really kills the five pests, but the eggs as well. P. D. Q. won't harm children, carpets, curtains, draperies or wall paper. Try it on the dog and see the Bed Bug. Your druggist has it or you get it for you.
